

This guide is meant to equip you with discussion questions and conversation starters that you can use throughout the week to continue the conversation about what you and your kids learned on Sunday.

Conversation Starters

These are things you can talk about with your kids to help further the conversation about what they may have learned on Sunday.

- 1. Why do you think Pastor Jeff says it's important for churches to work together to help people in need?
- 2. How do you think helping others shows God's love?
- 3. Pastor Jeff talked about helping people who might feel alone or overlooked. Why is it important to care for these people?

Defending the Defenseless: Summary (11/10/2024)

In case you missed it, or if you just need a refresher, here's a quick summary of what we talked about this week in the sermon:

In his sermon, Pastor Jeff shares how Jesus' love inspires us to care for others, calling us to live out our faith through kindness and service. He explains that Centerpoint Church partners with other churches to support those in need, both locally and globally, emphasizing that even small acts of giving can have a big impact. Pastor Jeff shares stories of people helping in different ways—supporting families, aiding people in recovery, and writing to those in prison. He reminds us that, just as Jesus served others, we too are called to show love and compassion, reflecting Jesus' heart to the world.

- 4. What are some ways you can show kindness to others in your daily life?
- 5. Why do you think God wants us to use our special gifts to help others?
- 6. How does being generous make a difference in someone's life?
- 7. Can you think of a way we, as a family, could help others in need?
