

This guide is meant to equip you with discussion questions and conversation starters that you can use throughout the week to continue the conversation about what you and your kids learned on Sunday.

Conversation Starters

These are things you can talk about with your kids to help further the conversation about what they may have learned on Sunday.

- 1. Why do you think it's important to know that Jesus is always with us when life gets hard?
- 2. How does having Jesus in our lives help us feel more secure, even when other people might say different things about us?

Christ In You: Sermon Summary (09/22/2024)

In case you missed it, or if you just need a refresher, here's a quick summary of what we talked about this week in the sermon:

In today's sermon, Pastor Jeff talked about how having Jesus with us changes our lives. He shared that when we believe in Jesus, His power is within us, helping us face life's challenges. Like how a new fighter would need a strong coach, we need Jesus' strength to win against tough times. Pastor Jeff reminded us that our true identity comes from knowing Jesus, not what others say. This means we're never alone. He encouraged us to focus on God's words, look forward to a future with Him, and live each day with hope and purpose, showing God's love.

3. What do you think Pastor Jeff meant when he said, "Your salvation is secured"? How might this help us make good choices?
4. How can we "stay close" to Jesus in our everyday lives?
5. In Colossians 3:1, it talks about thinking about "things above." What might this mean, and how can we do that each day?
6. Why is it helpful to focus on God's words when we're going through something tough?
7. How can we help remind each other of God's love and strength, especially when someone feels alone?
