APPRENTICESHIP MOMENT:

How Is God Disrupting and Freeing You?

Our current sermon series, The Power of Belief, is all about how faith transforms us. Believing in Jesus isn't passive, it should disrupt, challenge, and reshape our lives.

Many of you are stepping into this kind of faith through Practicing the Way, Called & Gifted, or Living on Mission. This is what we call the Apprenticeship Path. Maybe you've sensed God leading you to subtract something to make space for Him. Things like setting boundaries with your phone or television, embracing Sabbath, or simplifying commitments. Or perhaps you've learned to start where you are, praying for two minutes instead of feeling pressure to pray for an hour, reading one verse instead of waiting for the perfect quiet time.

How is God challenging your assumptions? Where is He leading you into deeper trust and surrender?

We'd love to hear your story. Share how your faith is reshaping your life by writing or uploading a short video at bit.ly/CenterpointStories.

Your story could inspire someone else to step into transformation.
